The Echoes

Adult Devotional:

Happy New Year! Every year we welcome in a new year with much celebration. We often look back on the past year with mixed emotion; with God's help we are able to give thanks for the many blessings and mercies granted us from our Heavenly Father. Depending upon our circumstances and "perceived" freedom in Christ, we meet with variable success in recognizing the blessings. We brothers and sisters in Christ "know" how much we are loved by our Saviour and "know" that God is sovereign in our lives. Sometimes the connection between the "knowing" and the "perceiving" or "feeling" is tenuous, at best. Whatever the last year held, we leave it hoping for better things to come.....hope for the future. In Jeremiah 29:11 God speaks through the prophet, "For I know the plans I have for you. They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." (NLT) In Christ we do, in fact, have a hope for the future. I pray that this "new" year of 2014 will be one in which we, God's people, will experience Him in an increasingly deeper way, learning to trust Him and recognize the blessings He brings to us. I pray that His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. I pray that His harvest will be great in this New Year.

When I looked up the word "new" in the concordance at the back of my Bible, I found many references to the "new covenant" in Christ. "The day is coming," says the Lord, "when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah. This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt.....But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day," says the Lord. "I will put my instructions deep within them and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.....And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins." Jeremiah 31:31-34 excerpts (NLT) PRAISE GOD for His mercies!!

"Give thanks to the Lord of Heaven's Armies, for the Lord is good. His faithful love endures forever!"
Jeremiah 33:11 (NLT)

God bless you this New Year as you experience all that God has planned for you! Cherish the love He has for you and enjoy the hope He gives you for your future, in Christ Jesus.

Children's Devotional:

Rather than a devotional, I have decided to invite the children of all ages among us to participate in a project.

Please ask your children to participate. The guidelines are as follows:

Please submit a picture or photograph of a visual art project that represents your hope for this new year of 2014. Include a reference to God's hand in this hope and/or seeing the hope become a reality.

Please indicate your name, age, and where you're from along with your submission. All submissions will be shared in the next edition of The Echoes and/or the Bible Camp website.

Father.

Isaiah 64:8

Greetings from Bethel Lutheran Church! We pray that as the old year has passed away and the new year has dawned, God's people would be blessed and be a blessing to others!

Throughout the fall, we had 3 bible studies on the go. Two ladies morning studies as well as an evening study that went through "Promised Land" by Ray Vanderlaan.

December was a very busy month for us! First of all, our congregation was very excited to collect 92 shoe boxes to send to Samaritan's Purse! (102 from the area) We pray that these will bless the children that receive them.

Throughout the month of December, Pastor Doug's talks were about the different names of Jesus. We enjoyed being able to delve deeper and gain a new understanding of each one.

Pastor Doug led a membership class on December 8th for those desiring to become members. 12 people attended the class.

This year, we were blessed by the youth of our congregation as they did Advent Readings in service leading up to Christmas. As well, Pastor Doug prepared Advent Reading Booklets for people to take home and read. What a wonderful way to anticipate Christ's birth! On December 1st, there was a Love Offering Sunday and Potluck in honor of Pastor Doug and Kaycee. We appreciate all that you do!

The children from Bethel presented "It's a Wonderful Christmas" on the evening of December 8th. They once again brought us into the Spirit of Christmas as we caught a glimpse of what the world would be like if God had not sent His precious Son as a gift to us.

The ladies of our congregation prepared baking and packed boxes to distribute to those in need on December 15th. Thanks to all the hands that made this go smoothly! As well, the Youth Discipleship class had a luncheon and were able to show their class the presentations they had prepared.

Marcelle Savidan put up a 'Giving Tree' in the foyer for people to hang warm mittens, toques and scarves on. These items were sent to Pastor Wayne Olson at La Ronge Lutheran Fellowship and he distributed them where needed in the northern missions of Lac La Ronge Indian Reserve, Grandmother's Bay and Sucker River.

Many came out on December 19th for an evening of fun at the WMF Christmas Party! Carols, games, wonderful food and fellowship were enjoyed by all!

Pastor Doug had a lovely Christmas Eve candlelight service. Those attending sang many carols and watched a touching video clip as they worshiped the Christ Child.

About 30 people of all ages from our congregation had a wonderful evening together playing games and munching on goodies as we brought in the New Year!

January 2014

We are especially missing our Snowbirds this time of year! We hope you are enjoying your time away and we look forward to welcoming you home!

We have been praying for some of our member's health concerns. Please keep Jack Sailor, Synove Sanvic, Carl Rettger, and Lorraine Korbo in your prayers.

Finally, we were able to welcome 12 new members to our congregation on January 19th! What a blessing to have you in our midst as we worship on Sundays!

Bethlehem, Outlook

It is with deep regret that I inform you of the passing of June Haug. While I have not met her personally, I have received the congregational news she has submitted faithfully to The Echoes. I understand that June has not attended Elbow Lutheran Family Bible Camp for a number of years but her servant heart has kept her connected with all of us through her reports. My condolences to June's family and friends. –Lorna Sewell

A note from Linda Follick, on behalf of the Outlook congregation: We are saddened at the sudden passing of June Haug, a loving, faithful servant to our congregation for many years, and also our Echoes reporter as well. Hopefully in the future we will have someone take over her position. Blessed be her memory,

Letters to the Editor:

I received a letter from Irene Archibald in late October.

I will paraphrase her note below:

Irene lives in South Calgary and still enjoys receiving "The Echoes" to read about the goings on in the Bible Camp community. She and her husband, Norman, used to be members of the Skudesnes church and spent many summers going to Elbow Lutheran Bible Camp. When they moved to Saskatoon they became charter members of Rock of Ages Lutheran Brethren church, which was a new church planting at the time. In February of 1989 Irene and Norman moved to Calgary to be near their family who all lived here. While Norman went to be with the Lord on December 23, 2002, Irene continues to live in the Midnapore Beverly Age Care center. Irene very generously sent me a number of poems written by herself and other members of her family. It will be an honour to share these with you in this and following editions of "The Echoes".

"Unshackled"

Irene's Testimony

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creation; Old things are passed away; behold all things are become new. II Cor.5:17

Patched up? Oh no, My Lord – not good enough to meet Thy Holy gaze.

A garment you have made for me, so pure, so white, and beautiful to take my old one's place.

So hard I tried to mend my broken ways
And harder still, yet more distressed became!
You saw, and knew my weary burdened days
Revealed your Loving Advocate
Who took my place.

So free my heart became
So filled with love and praise
My burdens gone, my soul began to soar
Oh! How my lips would thank Thee for Thy Grace.

Thy Righteousness is fair, my Precious Lord
When in this Robe I am completely dressed.
No spot, or wrinkle in me then is seen
My heart is cleansed –
And I am truly blessed.

- Irene Archibald

I apologize for missing the following in the January 2014 edition of "The Echoes":

Ruth Stromberg, nee Simonson, sent a letter to "The Echoes", dated October 28/13. It is my pleasure to share the details below.

This ("The Echoes") has been my main connection to my home town of Elbow, Saskatchewan and place of birth (1927). My parents were Ben and Kristi Simonson, from the west coast of Norway (north of Bergen).

My two sisters, Selma and Nansey, live in Calgary and Sundry, AB respectively. They are well physically, and happy mentally (well-balanced...citizens of this great country, Canada!)

As for myself, Ruth, life has treated me well! I have been a widow for four years, however, life goes on and "we make the best of each day as it comes" with a thankful heart!

I have two daughters: Linda (in Toronto) teaches High School in Toronto and hopes to retire in about four years. Brenda has retired from teaching and now lives in Miami, Florida with her family. Her one son is my only grandchild and is now grown up.

Regarding Bob Hundebly: my sympathy to his family. I/we knew Bob "way back" when we were all kids. Rest well, Bob.

"Hello" to all our friends in Elbow, Strong field and elsewhere in the neighbourhood and at Calgary Faith Lutheran Church.

Personal contacts would be welcome:

Ruth Stromberg

548 Twin Oaks Crescent

Waterloo, Ontario N2L 4R8

**note: I'm considering selling my home in Waterloo (I have lived here since 1972) hence this address may soon change.*

Love and best wishes,

Ruth Stromberg
