The Echoes

Adult Devotional:

My Sacrifice?

As we approach Easter, we are reminded of the sacrifice that Christ made for us through his death on the cross. We are told in Hebrews 7:27 that Jesus was the final sin sacrifice which means that we are no longer required by God's law to offer up sacrifices for the forgiveness of our sins. But are we, as Christians, still asked to make sacrifices? If so, what and why?

In Romans 12:1 we are urged to offer ourselves as a living sacrifice. This seems like one of the last things that I would ever want to do. However, when I read the verse in context, God tells us that as we offer ourselves to Him, our minds will be renewed so that we can know God's good, pleasing and perfect will. So, if I offer my loving creator all of me – the good the bad and the ugly – He will transform me and show me His best plan? I kinda like that!

Hebrews 13:15 instructs us to continually offer up a sacrifice of praise. Really? At all times? Even when the world seems to be crashing down around us? Well, the second part of this verse says that our sacrifice of praise is made by "telling others of the glory of His name" (GW) or with "words that acknowledge Him" (LTB). The Bible is full of descriptions and names of God that reveal his unchanging character and his promises for our every need. So, instead of focusing on our circumstances that can change from day to day, what if we chose to focus on our all-powerful, loving, everlasting Father who never changes? Maybe then we could just stand in the eye of the storm and watch God at work!

Sacrifices are not pleasant; otherwise they wouldn't be called sacrifices. Christ's death on the cross was a horrific sacrifice that God asked of Jesus for our eternal benefit. And now we, as Christ followers, are also asked to make sacrifices. But if we are willing, God offers us something in return that is exponentially greater. That seems like a good trade to me!

April 2014

Greeting everyone! We here at Bethel are anxiously awaiting the spring and all that comes along with it. We realize what a wonderful gift God has given us as we observe the new life He brings!

- Our church has been busy these last few months. The evening Bible Study started up again on January 29th. They have been studying the book "Prophets and Kings"
- 3 of our youth attended Youth Quake in Caronport February 14-16. Pastor Doug and Kaycee chaperoned and they all had a wonderful time! What a blessing to be in such a worshipful environment!
- The ladies from the church had a coffee party on February 15th. Their guest speaker, Myra Daugherty will also be the speaker at their retreat at Cedar Lodge on April 11-13th.
- Pastor Doug has had several sermon themes since January. They have been The Word is Out, Follow, and currently I Thought You'd Never Ask. In February he gave out Life Journals to everyone in the congregation to encourage us to deepen our daily conversations with Jesus.
- Several members of the congregation attended the World Day of Prayer service at Elbow United Church on March 7th. This year's theme was "Streams in the Desert" written by the women of Egypt.
- The WMF Annual Meeting was held on March 13th. Elections were held, plans were made and the ladies are very much looking forward to their retreat!
- There are a couple of boxes here at the church right now. One is for collecting flat sheets for the community quilters to use as quilt backing. They get together each week to make quilts for the Children's Ward at the University Hospital, The Salvation Army and other community organizations. The 2nd box is for collection razors, shaving cream and deodorant for the men from Teen Challenge. We hope this will be a blessing to them!

- The men have been getting together regularly for their Saturday morning prayer breakfasts. The last one for this season is coming up quickly! April 19th is the final date. All men are welcome!
- Youth Discipleship (our confirmation class) began their last module. We pray they grow closer to God with each class!
- Janell Hundebly has been hosting Kid's Club at our church once a month. It is so great to see anywhere from 12-16 kids excited to come play games and learn about Jesus!
- Jordan and Rebecca Soggie are starting up a once a month youth group for grades 7-12 called Young and Free Friday's. The youth are very excited for the kick off on April 11th!
- Our church was blessed to have a gospel quartet called "Blue Collar Harmony Boys" here on March 28th. The evening began with a potluck and ended with some amazing music! One of the members is a son-in-law to Dave and Colleen Spelliscy.
- We are trying to organize a once a month service and visitation at Central Butte Manor. We welcome anyone interested in helping out!
- We had some of our snowbirds arrive home this past Sunday and are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the rest. How you have all been missed! Welcome home!

As we approach Easter, may we all be mindful of God's great love for us and the sacrifice He made to bring us back to Him. What Amazing Love!
God bless!

Letters to the Editor:

Ministry in poetry from Irene Archibald: "My sister, who, though not having a family of her own was right on hand to help anyone in need. She now lives in Saskatoon, SK. She is truly, God's Love Slave!"

Our Pilgrim Pathway

Often on our pilgrim pathway
Wells of mercy seem so dry
But our Loving God has promised
Streams in desert to supply.

Oftentimes we halt and stumble
In the desert, bleak and drear
Weak and weary, heavy laden
Even though His help is near.

He has given us His Promise
Not to leave us, or forsake;
Yet we do not heed His leading
And our own wrong paths we take.

When apart from Him we wander
For to seek some worldly goal
Still our Heavenly Father's kindness
Seeks and guides into His fold.

For He knows our human weakness
Knows how helpless, weak and blind
How in all we need to trust Him
Realize His Love, so kind.

Only as we seek His Guidance
Can we walk in Paths of Truth,

Find real Joy and Satisfaction
And our lives bring forth His Fruit.

He would have us to be willing To proclaim His Wondrous Love
To the maimed, the lost and helpless
That they too may live above.

Help me Lord to be your Love Slave
All my pilgrim pathway through
That you Will may be my portion
So my life may honour you.

Message from the President (Adam Wonnick):

ELBC will start this year on July 5 (as usual) and will end on Saturday July 12th right after lunch. There will be the Sunday school / dorm presentations in the morning and then after lunch there will be a group camp cleanup before we leave. Folks are welcome to stay the Saturday night and use the camp facilities however there will be no food provided after noon on Saturday. We would encourage those that stay to join a local congregation for worship on Sunday morning.

ELBC has purchased new playground equipment. We are expecting delivery sometime in May with the construction of the structure scheduled for late May or early June (perhaps even on the Bible Camp cleanup weekend). I have attached an actual picture of what the full structure will look like.

April 2014

ELBC Playground Structure

We continue to seek donations for the new playground equipment. We are just over 75% towards our goal of $28000. We also have an electrical fund which could always use donations. We currently have electrical funds in place to ensure electrical safety around camp but our goal would be to perform a full electrical upgrade so that we can safely and properly handle all electrical needs in the future.

Our Third Annual Bible Camp cleanup weekend is June 6th and 7th. Everyone is welcome and there should be lots of different projects to complete in order to get the camp facility ready for this coming season.

..\Downloads\Annual Cleanup Poster.doc

We have our speakers lined up for this coming season.
The Bible class teacher: Rob Lewis (Focus on Missions)
Youth speaker/leader: Daniel Spelliscy
Evening speaker: Harold Schoubye.

We have confirmation that we will be getting two summer tour teams this year. One is from CLBI and the additional team will be from the AFLC in the USA. What a blessing it will be for all campers to have access to more youth. Their leadership will be greatly appreciated.

Bethel Lutheran Church donated its old sound equipment to the Bible Camp. We will install the sound board, speakers, monitors and microphones sometime in spring.

The new cabin that was started last fall should be completed for use this year. We will need to make or find furniture/bunks for the new cabin once it is complete.
